Fit Your Kitchen

Save hours of time and save your vitality. Hoosier has places for 400 articles all handily arranged at your fingers' ends.

A million women have realized their right to the Hoosier. Are their time and health worth more consideration than yours?

We'll put the Hoosier in your kitchen for a small part payment; pay the rest $1 weekly. Your money back if you are not delighted.

The Hoosier factory is building these famous cabinets for thousands, and that brings the cost per cabinet very low. But prices are likely soon to advance, due to the increased cost of all raw materials.

Get your Hoosier NOW. Spare an hour to-day to save many dollars, miles of steps and many hours for a lifetime.

Come to-day—this is the only store here that is authorized to show the new Hoosier models.

Joseph Collings of Academy street left the city last evening for New York, where he is to make a business visit of several days. Later he will go to Pennsylvania, there to engage in installing the sand blast devices manufactured by the Phoenix company. While associated with the company's branch office in Barre, Mr. Collings has installed several of the devices in local stonehedges.

B. P. Shadron has taken possession, by virtue of a mortgage held by him, of the entire stock of groceries and store fixtures situated at the corner of North Main and Second streets, which goods were formerly owned by Albert George, and will sell the same at public auction on the said premises, commencing Tuesday, May 23, at 2 o'clock p. m. Watch the paper for further notice. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening. Besides regular work, five candidates were balloted on and the first and second degrees were conferred. After the business meeting a beautiful and impressive memorial service was held for our late sister, Mrs. Alice A. Bancroft, including the draping of the charter by Mrs. Nellie Roben and the degree team. Next Tuesday evening, May 23, a special meeting will be held for conferring the third and fourth degrees on the whole class.

Heavy rains of the week, culminating in yesterday's downpour, have wrought havoc with hill roads and highways here in the city. In several cases reported to the street department, running water has so gullied the sand sidewalks as to make them nearly impassable. On Wellington street, water, picking its way through the crushed granite and sand walk, threatened to undermine the granite curbing set along the highway last autumn. Wherever holes were worn by the water yesterday, the street department made haste to hang lanterns last night.

The fifth meeting of the educational series inaugurated by the Granite Manufacturers' association a few weeks ago will be held in Manufacturers' hall this evening, when W. D. MacDonald of East Barre, who is connected with the World Granite Co. and is one of the vice-presidents of the local association, will be the speaker. Mr. MacDonald has selected for his subject, "The Fundamentals of Estimating Work." Preparations are being made for the reception of as large a crowd of manufacturers as attended last week, when the attendance reached the highest point in four meetings. A buffet luncheon will be served after the lecture.

Demolition of the forward trucks on a Washington street car obstructed traffic on the branch line yesterday afternoon for more than an hour. The mishap occurred as the 1:45 car was proceeding from the hill toward the terminus. Near the Church street intersection, the car lurched forward heavily, the front trucks jumping the iron before the operator knew what had happened. Ernest Thompson, an employee of the cemetery commission, and G. E. Perry of Highland avenue were aboard the car when the derailment occurred. Mr. Thompson was unseated by the sudden jolt, but neither passenger suffered consequences more serious than a temporary scare. The Barre & Montpelier Traction & Power Co.'s "trouble" car was summoned from the car barns and at 3 o'clock the repairs were practically completed.

Miss Katherine R. Mathieson, librarian of the Aldrich public library, and her assistant, Miss Ruth Parker, returned last evening from Waterbury, where the former presided at a meeting of Washington and Orange county librarians. Among those who spoke were: Miss Fletcher of Proctorsville, on "Library Work in the Teacher Training Course"; Miss Clark of Montpelier, "Nature Work in the Library"; Mrs. Rebecca Wright of Montpelier, "Book Selections"; Mrs. W. L. Wasson, "Community Work in the Library." There was a very encouraging attendance of library workers and much interest was manifested in the several papers presented. The librarians were entertained at luncheon at the Waterbury inn.

Operations at Jones Bros' plant in the north end were suspended at 11 o'clock Wednesday on account of the surfeit of water overhead and in the wheel pit. It was thought that work could be resumed this morning, but workmen who went to the plant were told to remain away until the near deluge is finally passed.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: Allen Calhoun of Middlebury, state factory inspector; J. E. Scofield of Rochester, N. Y.; J. W. Bray, Jr., of Florence, Mass.; R. W. Emerson of Springfield, Mass.; Merton Sargent of Newport, Miss. Marjorie Fischer of Saratoga, N. Y.; J. E. Bemis of Keene, N. H.; J. B. Marron of Portsmouth, N. ## Lady Ruth and Royal Worcester Corsets

High cost of materials is putting small Corset manufacturers out of business. It's only the larger concerns that can procure the materials and deliver the goods. At that, orders are from one to two weeks behind.

Corset like cut is a topless Corset for young ladies; made of fine Batiste with full set of strong hose supporters, at $1.00.

Lady Ruth Lace Front Corsets are not only new in shape and materials, but one of the very best lace front Corsets on the market, and the first number is only $1.25 each.

Royal Worcester Corsets for quality. There are no others at their price their equal. Materials are better. Steels are better. They are better put together. They hold their shape better, and, as one would expect, they wear better.

Royal Worcester Corsets are the leaders of Corset styles in America to-day, and are far ahead of foreign-made Corsets in every way.

Royal Worcester Corsets are made by what are called the Royal Worcester family, meaning that workers, from the president down, all dine at one table. They are a family by themselves, all working to produce the best Corset in America.

Every Rising and Setting of the Sun
Brings Style Changes in Wearing Apparel for Ladies

The most essential changes often comes in the Brassiere or Corset. This season styles are marked by certain very effective changes. To be right one should place their confidence in the very best makers—those that have built their business on safe principles of always being at the head of their profession. DeBevoise Brassieres are style leaders of this country. Try just one of their Brassieres.

Ready-to-Hang Curtains

House-cleaning time is Lace Curtains season, and we are showing one of the largest and best lines of this most popular Curtain, the Ready-to-Hang, that we have ever shown. This is a line of Curtains that is made in all qualities, from 87c per pair to the very fine Nottingham and fine Cable Nets.

This Ready-to-Hang feature will especially appeal during house-cleaning time, when Curtains are taken down and cleaned. No hem to rip out and sew up.

See how they are made—with patent heading. Nothing to rip; hemming or pinning unnecessary. Fine, double-threaded Nottingham Lace. Most wonderful improvement in Lace Curtains without increased cost.

These Curtains come in the White and the Two-Toned Effect. The lace is fine and the patterns are new and of a very neat and attractive design.

These Curtains are made the right length to come just below the window sill. The prices range from 87c to $5.50 per pair. Can order you the better qualities.
